

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY
THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOR ALL INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

The following figures are the estimated costs for one year of graduate study during the 2008-2009 academic year and for the summer months when the University is not in session. They may be expected to rise by up to 10% for the 2009-2010 academic year.

Tuition (charge for instruction)	$37,700.00
Housing (Academic Year)	14,230.00
Health Insurance (approximate)	0.00
Personal Expenses	2,600.00
Book & Supplies	1,000.00
Matriculation (Entrance) Fee	($500.00)
TOTAL.....	$

Important Notes:

- The $500.00 matriculation fee is currently being paid by the department.
- Health Insurance is paid by the school for each graduate student.
- Health insurance enrollment is required upon registration.
- Pre-entrance health forms are due no later than June 1st before an I-20 form can be issued.
- Students who remain in good academic standing are typically funded during their first five years in the program, pending the availability of funds. This financial aid is available in the form of Research Assistantships, Research Apprenticeships and Teaching Assistantships and usually covers tuition, salary and health insurance.

---

NOTE: Please answer the questions below and return this portion with your application materials. It is vital that this office has this information in order to apply for your visa permit if you are accepted for graduate study.

Name _____

Marital status _____ Number of dependents _____

State below the amount of money, in U.S. dollars, that you have available.

From personal savings or earnings..... $ _____
From family or relatives..... $ _____
From your government..... $ _____
Other sources (specify)..... $ _____
Total in U.S. dollars.....$ _____

Will this sum total be available for each succeeding year? Yes___ No___

Are there monetary exchange restrictions imposed by your government? Yes___ No___

If yes, please explain.